

Hello, June!

SUMMER READING

Here are some summer reading ideas!

Barnes & Noble Summer Reading Program

Camp Book It! from Pizza Hut

Local libraries usually have summer reading programs, as well they often they use an effective program similar to what was developed by USU. Whatever you choose, we hope you add reading to your summer enjoyment!

Town Hall Meetings

Canyon Grove is a community of families who care about their children and want to be very involved in their education. Canyon Grove is here to encourage and support this process. We are in this together! Our school director, Kim Goates, has started monthly town hall meetings to discuss the needs of our children, answer questions about our programs, and to listen to our parents. We hope you will join us at our next Town Hall Meeting!

June 23rd, 10:00-11:00

OUTDOOR MATH GAMES

Sidewalk chalk for adding?
Water balloons for counting?
Basketball for multiplication?
Work your summer math fact practice into your summer play.

Conscious Parenting

“A conscious parent moves away from trying to ‘fix’ their child and begins the difficult process of having to change themselves first. They use the present moment as a living laboratory because everyday interactions have the potential to teach valuable lessons...”

LEXIA

Lexia is available for your student to use until late July! A few minutes a week can go a long ways. When your student has had too much summer sun, a break working on Lexia and sipping a lemonade might be just the thing! :)

Summer Fun w/ JiJi

ST Math is available all summer long for your student to use. In addition, their team has shared some SUMMER IDEAS. JiJi by the pool? Click here to read about how ST Math can help your student during the summer!
